DETAIL ACTION

Examiner's Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as following:

In the title, insert -- OPEN CIRCUIT DETECTION FOR -- before "VEHICULAR LAMP".

In the claim, line 1 of claims 2-4, delete "A" and insert --The-- before "vehicular".

The above noted amendment has been added in order to provide clarification in the specification and claim language as well.

Reasons For Allowance

2. Claims 1-5 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to disclose a detection circuit for vehicular lamp by comprising a semiconductor light emitting element, a resistor for causing a current detection voltage in response to a current flowing through said semiconductor light emitting element, a serial diode being coupled in series to said resistor and said semiconductor light emitting element in a forward direction and an open circuit detecting unit, wherein the detecting unit detects an open circuit of said semiconductor light emitting element based on a sum voltage, which is a sum of a forward voltage of said serial diode and said current detection voltage as required in claims 1 and 5.

4. The remaining dependent claims are allowable for at least above reason.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicants' disclosure. Willis (US Pat. 6,351,079) discloses a lighting control device. Stam et al. (US Pat. 6,498,440) discloses a lamp assembly incorporating optical feedback. Terada et al. (US Pat.

Art Unit: 2821

6,710,555) discloses a discharge lamp lighting circuit with protection circuit. Fujimura et al. (US Pub. 2002/0011804) discloses a control circuit and method for protecting a piezoelectric transformer from an open state and a short circuit state. None of cited/recorded prior arts stands alone or combination with others discloses all limitation required in claim invention.

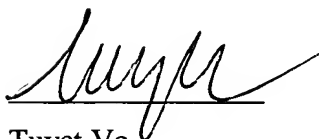

Correspondence

Any comments considered necessarily by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
